I have read the questions in this application carefully and have filled out this application honestly. Misinformation and/or failure to answer all applicable questions can result in this application being declined.

I, and no one in my current household, have ever been convicted of any form of animal abuse, neglect, or abandonment. By signing this agreement, I consent to Brendan's Meadows Rescue approval process, which includes, but is not limited to contacting my veterinarian, contacting references, contacting animal control and/or other animal facilities, a home inspection, inspecting where the dog will be kept, and meeting all members of my household.

I understand the foster decision is dependent on many factors, including but not limited to the compatibility of the family and home with the individual animal.
